ORDER

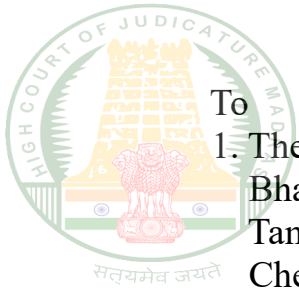

When the writ petition is taken up for hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the cause in the writ petition does not survive for consideration and thus, the writ petition has become infructuous.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that she is unable to state before this Court with authenticity as to whether the subject matter has been referred to Central Administrative Tribunal.

3. In view of the aforesaid submission and since the learned counsel for the petitioner herself states that the cause in the writ petition does not survive for consideration, this writ petition is closed as infructuous without expressing any opinion on the merits of the matter. No costs.
