2. The case of the prosecution is that when the respondent police was conducting a raid, the petitioner was illegally transporting 4 units of sand by a lorry taken from patta lands of a company without permission and the company is not aware of the same. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case, and she is only owner of the vehicle and not involved in any of the offence as alleged and ready to co-operate for the investigation and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that as per the complaint, the petitioner's vehicle involved in illegal transportation of 4 units of sand from one company's patta land and there is no previous case and that the investigation of this case is pending.

5. Considering the submissions made, facts and circumstances of this case, nature of allegation, nature of offence involved in this case and there is no previous case and the petitioner being lady and only owner of the vehicle and the sand was taken from patta lands, since custodial interrogation of the petitioner herein is not necessary for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thiruvallur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] if the petitioner fails to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of copy of this order, this Order shall stand automatically cancelled;

[b] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice,
