and wall is being raised in the manner that it completely obstructs access to air and light through the window fitted in the house of the petitioner. He would submit that a complaint has been made to the first respondent, who in turn directed the fifth respondent to examine the same.

3. The fifth respondent, if he has not already initiated enquiry on the complaint, should initiate appropriate enquiry to verify the complaint made by the petitioner with regard to the alleged illegal construction made by the seventh respondent. The entire area of construction should be verified. It shall also verify whether the petitioner has made his construction in accordance with the rules and, thereafter, appropriate action should be taken.

4. With the above observation, the writ petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
