(Crime No.305 of 2025)

... Respondent/ Complainant

PRAYER: Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, pleased to enlarge the petitioners herein on anticipatory bail in the event of their arrest by the respondent in Crime No.305 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police.

For Petitioners : Mr. Rajesh Babu

For Respondent : M/s. J.R. Archana
Government Advocate (Crl.Side)

Crl.O.P.No.2066 of 2020

ORDER

The petitioners herein, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 323, 324, 448, 294(b), 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.305 of 2025 on the file of the respondent Police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, there is a land dispute between the parties, because of which, a wordy quarrel aroused between the parties. During that time, the petitioners attacked the complainant using wooden log and iron pipe, due to which, the complainant sustained injuries. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case; there was only a wordy quarrel due to a land dispute and they have not involved in any of the offences as alleged in the prosecution and that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and to co-operate for the investigation, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioners reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the complainant sustained injuries and got discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case as against the petitioners and that the investigation of this case is pending.

5. Considering the submissions made, facts and circumstances of this case, nature of allegation, the fact that there is no previous case and injured got discharged from the hospital and custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not necessary for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate, Neyveli, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] if the petitioners fail to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of copy of this order, this Order shall stand automatically cancelled;

Crl.O.P.No.2066 of 2020

[b] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to ensure their identity;

[c] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30.a.m., for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

[d] On breach of any of the aforementioned conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to pass appropriate orders against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the aforementioned conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)13 SCC 283];

[e] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of B.N.S.
