in

W.P.No.25031 of 2015

HEMANT CHANDANGOUDAR, J.,

This application has been filed seeking to implead the proposed party as a respondent in the above writ petition.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

3. Considering the submissions made and the nature of relief sought, this Court is of the view that the proposed party is a necessary party for effective adjudication. Since the proposed party supports the case of the writ petitioner, he is ordered to be impleaded as the second petitioner instead of as a respondent.

4. Registry is directed to carry out necessary and consequential amendments in the main writ petition.
