2. The allegation against this petitioner is that, the petitioner joined hands with the other accused and involved in illegal quarrying and transportation of half unit of river sand from Cheyyar and hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and transported sand for the purpose of laying foundation for the construction work he was in possession of the sand and on the presumption that the petitioner might involved in illegal quarrying he was arrested in this case and has not involved in the offence alleged and is ready to co-operate with the investigation and also ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner illegally transported the sand from Cheyyar and the vehicle was also seized nearby the river; and it is not a false accusation, there is no material to substantiate the same.
