3. This being the factum, the Authorities have to initiate necessary action, if required to make necessary entry in the Revenue Records or scrutinize previous Revenue Records, if any available and take appropriate action in the manner known to law, by affording an opportunity to encroachers, if any identified. The petitioner is also at liberty to produce records available with him before the competent authority.

4. With the above observations, the present Writ Petition stands disposed of. No costs.
