2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner borrowed a sum of Rs.40,000/- from the de facto complainant, and when the same was demanded back, the petitioner threatened him by showing knife and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that no one was injured in this case, however, the petitioner is involved in two previous cases, one under 307 IPC and another one is under 118 of BNS. Hence, she vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for either side and taking note of the fact that no one was injured in this case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
