2.On 28.03.2025, this Court referred the matter to the Mediation Centre to explore the possibility of an amicable settlement between the parties.

C.M.A.No.946 of 2024

4. Placing reliance on the settlement agreement, learned counsel on both sides submit that, as the appellant and the respondent have mutually agreed for a settlement and the appellant has agreed to withdraw the proceedings filed against the respondent in terms of the settlement agreement and that the properties of the respondent have been settled in the name of the appellant and his children, this Court may record the same and confirm the impugned judgment granting a decree of divorce between the parties.

5. We have considered the submissions of learned counsel on both sides and noted the contents of the settlement agreement.

6. In view of the said understanding reached between the parties, where both the parties signed along with the respective counsel and have confirmed to the said terms of the agreement, this civil miscellaneous appeal is disposed of confirming the decree of divorce passed in F.C.O.P.No.180 of 2019 on the file of the Family Court, Namakkal in terms of the settlement agreement dated 27.10.2025 which shall form part of the decree and Judgment. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions, if any, stand closed.
