This Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is directed against the order of the II Additional Principal Family Court, Chennai, allowing H.M.O.P. No. 2618 of 2021, a petition seeking dissolution of the marriage between the appellant and the respondent.

2.On 18.03.2025, this Court referred the matter to the Mediation Centre to explore the possibility of an amicable settlement between the parties.

3. When the appeal was taken up for hearing, the Mediation Centre reported that a settlement had been reached between the parties, and its mediation report dated 24.07.2025, together with the Memorandum of Understanding signed by both parties, has been forwarded to this Court.

C.M.A.No.695 of 2025

4. Placing reliance on the Memorandum of Understanding, learned counsel on both sides submit that, as the appellant and the respondent have mutually agreed for a settlement and the appellant has agreed to withdraw the proceedings filed against the respondent in terms of the memorandum of understanding and that the respondent has agreed to pay Rs. 6,00,000/- towards full and final settlement including arrears of maintenance amount of Rs.1,45,000/- vide order dated 05.07.2025 in E.P.No.120 of 2025 in M.C.No.378 of 2022 for the appellant, this Court may record the same and confirm the impugned judgment granting a decree of divorce between the parties.

5. We have considered the submissions of learned counsel on both sides and noted the contents of the memorandum of understanding.

6. In view of the said understanding reached between the parties, where both the parties signed along with the respective counsel and have confirmed to the said terms of the understanding, this civil miscellaneous appeal is disposed of confirming the decree of divorce passed in H.M.O.P.No.2618 of 2021 on the file of the Family Court, Chennai in terms of the memorandum of understanding dated

24.07.2025 which shall form part of the decree and Judgment. No costs.

Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions, if any, stand closed.
