2. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are the parents and elder brother respectively of the husband of the second respondent/de facto complainant. He further submitted that there are no specific allegations as against the petitioners and that they have been falsely implicated in this case. He also submitted that the petitioners are residing elsewhere and have been unnecessarily roped in the case and subjected to harassment. Hence, he prayed to quash the proceedings pending against the petitioners.

3. Having heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and perused the materials available on record, this Court is of the view that the grounds raised by the petitioners are matters for trial and therefore, is not inclined to interfere with the impugned proceedings.
