2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was engaging one of the victim in this case in prostitution by running a brothel house. Hence, on the information, police went to the place and have conducted a search and rescued the victim from that place and registered a case against the petitioner and arrested him.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner herein is not having any bad antecedents and no previous case as against the petitioner and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted the petitioner is in judicial custody since 23.12.2025 and except this petitioner, no other persons were arrested in this case; and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and sought for bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent while opposing the bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and that the petitioner is not having any previous case and the victim is also rescued and that the further investigation of this case is pending.

5. I have considered the submissions made and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts, nature of allegation and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner herein and taking note of the fact that there is no previous case as against the petitioner and the victim is also secured from that place, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Poonamallee, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10:30 a.m., for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;
