2. The allegation against the petitioners is that they are the family members and relatives of the first petitioner and that, on account of the defacto complainant having lodged a complaint against a relative of the first petitioner, the petitioners came to the place of occurrence and assaulted the defacto complainant. It is alleged that the second petitioner attacked her with a scissor, causing grievous injuries, on the thigh and backside, which resulted in severe bleeding. Similarly, the other accused were also implicated and are stated to have assaulted her. Hence, the case.

3. It is seen that, this Court had earlier dismissed the bail applications of the petitioner by stating the following reasons:

7. This Court has also gone through the FIR copy and other records, it reveals that the victim has sustained various pouncture wounds. It is also submitted that, at the time of admitting the victim, statement was also

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that, after dismissal of the petition, investigation completed and final report also filed.

5. I have gone through the earlier dismissal orders and now it has been stated that the investigation in this case completed and final report filed and hence considering the change in circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of ten days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Udumalaipettai, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further condition that:
