The petitioner, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 8(c) and 20(b)(ii)(A) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 in Crime No. 21 of 2026, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner is a Senior House Surgeon in CMC, Vellore and during the search conducted by the Enforcement Directorate regarding money laundering, they have found that the petitioner was found in possession of 36 grams of ganja and some tablets weighing 6 grams and also some herbal mushrooms weighing 36 grams and it was immediately informed to the local police and they have also participated in the search and the same was seized and the case has been registered for possession of Narcotic drugs.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the contraband seized herein is only a small quantity and the tablets seized from the petitioner is not having any consequences since the petitioner himself is a Senior House Surgeon. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the investigation is pending and the petitioner is still serving in CMC, Vellore.

Hence, she vehemently opposed granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
