ORDER

This Writ Petition has been filed to direct the 1st respondent to de-mark the Lien created in the Bank Account of petitioner's company being the Current Account No.409001983389 IFSC Code: RATN0000202 with the 2nd respondent in pursuant to the complaint vide complaint no.32906230015666 on the file of the 1st respondent.

2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned respective counsels appearing for the respondents and perused the documents placed on record.

4. On instructions, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the 1st respondent submits that there are several complaints received as against the account maintained by the petitioner and still the investigation is pending.

WP No. 16214 of 2024

5. Upon hearing the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) it is clear that several complaints have been received as against the account maintained by the petitioner and that the investigation is pending, therefore, the 1st respondent had made a request to create lien to the tune of Rs.80,000/- in the current account of the petitioner, which is lying on the file of the 2nd respondent.

6. Therefore, at this stage, lien created in the petitioner's current account cannot be de-marked, since the investigation is pending. Hence the direction sought for in this Writ Petition cannot be considered and the present Writ Petition is liable to be dismissed. However, the 1st respondent is directed to complete the investigation on the complaint received from various persons within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of order.

In the result, the present Writ Petition is dismissed. No costs.
