2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner herein is found to be involved in transportation of six units of jalli stones without proper documentation. Hence, on the transit, it was intercepted by the officials , lorry and minerals have been seized, which led to registration of the case. Hence, the present petition for anticipatory bail.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that though the jalli stones was taken from the quarry, it was transported without the transit pass. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to cooperate for the investigation and also ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner is not having any previous case. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that it is not a case of illegal quarrying and it is a case of transporting the jalli stones without transit pass, the petitioner is not having any previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
