5. It is now brought to the notice of this Court by the learned counsel for the respondent that the petitioner has insufficient attendance to participate in the VI Semester Examination and therefore, he was instructed to make a representation to the respondent to continue his studies from June 2026 onwards and to conclude the course smoothly. She further submitted that upon submission of the said representation by the petitioner, the same will be considered by the respondent, in accordance with law.

6. In response, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has already paid the fees for the V and VI semester courses and the same shall be considered by the respondent.

7. On hearing the facts of the case, it is pertinent to note that the petitioner lacks attendance to participate in the VI Semester examination. This Court directs the petitioner to make a representation to the respondent in order to continue his studies from June 2026 onwards and to conclude the course smoothly and also to permit him to write the arrears of the V and VI semester examinations by considering the payment already paid by him for the semester courses, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on receipt of the same, the respondent shall pass appropriate orders in accordance with law, within a period of two weeks therefrom.
