ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence under Section 420, 467, 468 and 471 of IPC in Crime No.267 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that A1 and A2 have handed over the vehicle and by pledging the vehicle, received Rs.21 lakhs from the de facto complainant, and subsequently, it was revealed that by tampering with the engine and chassis number, these petitioners have handed over the vehicle to the de facto complainant, which was already under hypothecation with the original financier, Shri Ram Finance, and thereby cheated Rs.21 lakhs. Hence a case has been registered.

3. Considering the above allegations and since the anticipatory bail petition was dismissed twice, and even today the petitioner has not made out any case for grant of anticipatory bail, this court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
