The arbitration proceedings shall be based on documents only which shall be conducted through exchange of e-mail and/or any other mode of electronic communication as permitted by the rules of the Institution or through an online dispute resolution by the web portal offered by the Institution. The parties hereby agree that the arbitral proceeding shall be conducted in electronic mode and all pleadings and documents will be exchanged electronically. There shall be no in-person and/or oral hearings except in certain exceptional circumstances as the sole arbitrator may deem fit upon the request of either of the parties. In such instances, the hearings shall be conducted virtually at the sole discretion of the arbitrator. The seat of arbitration for all purposes shall be deemed to be such place as mentioned in Annexure I of the Agreement. The language of arbitral proceedings shall be English.

It shall be the responsibility of the Lender and Obligor(s) to maintain sufficient space in the e-mail account and/or in any other mode of electronic account(s) and also to have supporting applications / software in their computer / mobile / any other electronic device to access the electronic documents sent to them. The courts at such place as mentioned in Annexure I of the Agreement shall have exclusive jurisdiction in respect of matters arising hereunder including any petition for appointment of an arbitrator under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. 1996 / application for setting aside the award/appeal and the Lender/Obligor(s) shall not object to such jurisdiction. The arbitration shall be conducted under the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 together with its amendments, any statutory modifications or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties concerned. The cost of arbitration shall be borne by the Borrower. ”

Upon a dispute arising between the parties, the petitioner issued notice dated 08.12.2025 specifying the list of institutions authorised to appoint the arbitrator under the contract. The petitioner also called upon the respondents to select one of the institutions for purposes of making such appointment. Because the respondents did not respond to the notice, the present petition has been filed.

3. Under Section 11(2) of the A & C Act, the parties are free to agree on a procedure for appointing the arbitrator. As per sub-section (6) of Section 11, if a party or institution fails to perform a function entrusted under the agreed appointment procedure, the person aggrieved is entitled to approach this Court.

4. In the case at hand, it is evident from the arbitration clause that there is an agreed appointment procedure. Therefore, the petitioner should have requested one of the institutions mentioned in clause 9 to make the appointment.

Upon failure by such institution to make the appointment, the petitioner would be entitled to approach this Court.

5. Because the petitioner has approached this Court prematurely without adhering to the procedure prescribed in the contract, this petition is disposed of by leaving it open to the petitioner to re-apply if appointment cannot be made in accordance with the agreed appointment procedure in spite of the petitioner making necessary efforts in that regard. There will be no order as to costs.
