the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 26.01.2026, the de facto complainant found that the petitioner, along with other accused, attempting to break into her house and commit theft. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner has five previous cases, all registered under the Juvenile Justice Act when the petitioner was a minor. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.
