3.It is now brought to the notice of this Court by the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondents that as against the order passed by the second respondent, only a writ petition is maintainable and not a revision petition.

4.In view of the same, the learned counsel for the petitioner has made an endorsement in the court bundle stating that the petitioner is willing to file a fresh writ petition as against the order dated 16.09.2025 passed by the second respondent.

5.In view of the endorsement made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this writ petition is disposed of by granting liberty to the petitioner to file a fresh writ petition, challenging the order dated 16.09.2025 passed by the second respondent. No costs.
