For Respondent : Ms.J.R.Archana

ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 r/w Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Cr.No.97 of 2026 , on the file of the respondent police seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioners have abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and also caused injuries to him and threatened him with dire consequence, which lead to the registration of an FIR. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners herein are ranked as A1 to A4. He further submitted that due to personal animosity and wreck vengeance, between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, a false complaint has been lodged against the petitioners. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to cooperate with the investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that injured has been discharged from the hospital, no previous cases reported against the petitioners and investigation in this case is pending . Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations and the fact that injured has been discharged from the hospital, though investigation in this case is pending and no previous cases reported against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvennainallur on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bonds for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction learned Magistrate concerned, and on further condition that:

(b) The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the application for surety ship (Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019]'. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of identify proofs to ensure their identity;

(c) The petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30a.m., for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

(d) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate actions against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji v. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560];

(e) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS Act.
