For Petitioner :: Mr.K. Hemanathan

COMMON ORDER

The petitioner has preferred the above revision challenging the judgment dated 02.01.2026 passed in Crl.A. No. 85 of 2023 by the learned I Additional District and Sessions Judge, Tiruppur, confirming the judgment of the learned Magistrate convicting the petitioner for the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, and sentencing him to undergo six months simple imprisonment and to pay compensation of Rs.6,00,000/-, in default, to undergo simple imprisonment for one month. The instant petitions have been filed to suspend the sentence imposed on the petitioner and to exempt the petitioner from surrendering before the Trial Court, pending disposal of the above revision.

2. It is the case of the respondent that the petitioner had issued a cheque for a sum of Rs.6,00,000/- towards discharge of liability; that when the said cheque was presented for collection, it was returned for the reason 'Insufficient Funds'; that in spite of the statutory notice, the petitioner did not make the payment; and hence liable for the said offence.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has raised substantial grounds in the above revision; that the petitioner has rebutted the statutory presumption; that the judgments of the Courts below are liable to be set aside; and that, to show his bona fides, the petitioner is willing to deposit 40% of the cheque amount.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the materials available on record.

5. Having regard to the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner that there are substantial grounds raised in the above revision which require consideration, and the fact that the petitioner is willing to deposit 40% of the cheque amount, this Court is inclined to grant suspension of sentence and exempt the petitioner from surrendering before
