2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.02.2026 at about 11.00 p.m., when the de facto complainant, his brother and one Ibrahim were standing near Kupta Sweets situated near Sivasakthi Coffee Bar, A-1 Roshan and the petitioner came there on a two-wheeler. After a brief altercation, they abused the de facto complainant and others in filthy language and assaulted them. Thereafter, A-1 and the petitioner called the other accused over phone and, when they arrived, all of them joined together and assaulted the de facto complainant with stones, wooden log and hands and attempted to kill him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that there is no previous case against the petitioner. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent submitted that the injured was in the hospital for a couple of days. Hence, he opposed the grant of anticipatory bail.

5. From the submissions of the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side), it comes to the knowledge of this Court that the injured was in the hospital for a couple of days, which clearly shows the gravity of the injuries sustained by the victim. In such view of the matter, though there is no previous case against the petitioner, the nature of the attack itself is sufficient to deny anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
