5. The case of the prosecution is that the 1st accused company, M/s Tej Ugam Hire Purchase Pvt. Ltd., along with its Managing Director (A2) and Directors (A3 and A4), was assessed to income tax under the jurisdiction of the complainant for the Assessment Year 1990–91. It is alleged that the 1st accused filed its return of income declaring a loss of Rs.1,69,340/-, wherein the income from Gas Tanker operations was shown as Rs.45,000/- and liability as Rs.1,75,000/-. The said return was processed and accepted under Section 143(1) (a) of the Income-tax Act. Subsequently, during the course of investigation relating to the Assessment Year 1991–92, it was revealed that the accused had leased out a Gas Tanker to M/s MGM Transport for a monthly rent of Rs.10,000/- and had also received substantial security deposits. It was further found that the deposits had increased from Rs.1,75,000/- to Rs.3,32,000/-, which was not properly disclosed in the original return. On being questioned, the 1st accused filed a revised return on 12.03.1993 declaring higher income. However, upon scrutiny and issuance of notice under Sections 143(1)(a) and 142(1) of the Income-tax Act, it was found that the accused had understated income to the extent of Rs.2,50,000/-. Consequently, tax liability was determined, and penalty proceedings were initiated and penalty imposed. The prosecution contends that the accused, in furtherance of their common intention, wilfully concealed income, furnished false statements, and attempted to evade tax, thereby committing aforesaid offences.

6. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that, during the assessment proceedings, the petitioner neither rendered any services to the 1st accused company nor participated in its business activities. It was further contended that the trial Court failed to properly consider the cross-examination of PW-1, wherein it was clearly established that the petitioner had no connection whatsoever with the affairs of the 1st accused company. He further submitted that the entire affairs of the 1st accused company were managed and controlled by Accused 2 and Accused 3, who are no longer alive to defend the case. Therefore, he prayed that the petitioner may be exempted from surrender and that the sentence imposed on her may be suspended.

7. Heard the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondent.

8. Considering the fact that the petitioner has raised substantial grounds in the above revision, which require consideration, this Court is inclined to suspend the sentence imposed on the petitioner and exempt her from surrendering before the trial Court.
