3. There is no representation on behalf of the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner is having five previous cases and has been regularly doing similar nature of offences. He would further submit that if the petitioner is released on bail, he may abscond and tamper with witnesses and hence, he opposed the grant of bail.

5. From the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side), it is pellucid that the petitioner has misused the liberty which had been granted by this Court in earlier point of time.
