2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners, had illegally transported one unit of sand without any valid permit through a tipper lorry. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that there is no previous cases to the credit of the petitioners. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioners have illegally transported one unit of sand. However, he fairly submitted that the petitioners have no previous cases registered against them.

5.From the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side), it is seen that the petitioners have no criminal antecedents. Since the petitioners did not come under the adverse notice of the respondent, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.
