2. It is the case of the prosecution that the petitioner and the defacto-complainant were relatives. It is alleged that the petitioner committed sexual assault against defacto complainant under the false pretext of marriage. Thus the petitioner has committed the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the on 09.02.2015, the petitioner / A1 went to the defacto-complainant's residence to invite her for his marriage and only thereafter, the present complaint has been lodged. He further submitted that petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed to suspend the sentence imposed on the petitioner.

4. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner that there are substantial grounds raised in the above revision which require consideration, this Court is inclined to suspend the sentence imposed on the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
