3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the defacto complainant and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that co-accused/A1 and A2 have already been enlarged on bail and that he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and he is ready to co-operate with the investigation. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and, upon instructions, he would submit that the petitioner involved in the said offence and stolen electric motors and electric cables and copper wire worth about Rs.43,000/-. However, he would fairly admit that the co-accused have already been released on bail and no previous case has been registered against him. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the factual position, this Court is of the view that taking into consideration of the registration of the First Information Report on 21.01.2026 at this length of time no custodial interrogation of the petitioner is required and that the release of other co-accused and the position of the petitioner as a Site Manager in a private company and no previous cases have been registered against him, this Court is inclined to enlarge him on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbathur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:
