2. Today, there is no representation on behalf of the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents would submit that in this case, the survey was conducted and boundary stones were also laid at the subject land. Hence, he would contend that nothing survives in this petition and prays for dismissal of this petition.

4. Upon perusal, it appears that this petition is pending for a period of 5 years. Therefore, considering the long pendency, this Court is inclined to dismiss this petition by recording the submissions made by the respondents.
