ORDER (Order of the Court was made by G.Arul Murugan,J)

The review application has been filed seeking to review the order dated 16.02.2026 made in W.A.No.325 of 2026.

2. Petitioner-in-person contended that when the fact remains that he has not sought No Objection Certificate for obtaining educational loan for his children education, but only wanted to avail benefits from the employer in respect of education of his children, the facts have been wrongly noted in the order and therefore, seeks review of the order.

3. We have heard petitioner-in-person and perused the materials on record.

4. Petitioner had originally filed W.P.No.49810 of 2025, assailing the order dated 22.09.2025 passed by the Chief Educational Officer, Thanjavur. The learned Single Judge, recording that after exhausting the regular battlefields, the warring petitioner and wife are dragging all the educational authorities, corporation authorities and revenue authorities and also occupying the writ Court which resulted in the docket multiplication which has gone beyond 15 cases and also taking note of the fact that already petitioner has filed a custody application, which was pending before the competent Court where the guardianship and matrimonial issues are pending, observed that the issue could be addressed in the said competent Court and dismissed the writ petition imposing cost of Rs.2,000/- on petitioner.

5. Assailing the order of the learned Single Judge, petitioner filed W.A.No.325 of 2026. This Court, finding that since the writ petition was dismissed considering several litigations between petitioner and his wife on various matrimonial issues, including custody of children, dismissed the writ appeal for want of valid ground to interfere with the order passed by the learned Single Judge.

6. Now the sole ground raised by petitioner to review the order is that it has been wrongly recorded that petitioner intended to obtain educational loan for his children, when the fact remains that he only wanted to avail benefits from the employer, for which, he required a bona fide certificate. The issue was considered by the learned Single Judge and also by this Court in the writ appeal, where, after taking note of several litigations between the petitioner and his wife and finding that there is also multiplicity of proceedings and that the child is in the custody of mother and an application was filed by petitioner seeking custody of the child, liberty was given to raise all the issues in the pending suit.

7. In our considered opinion, the ground raised to review the order does not come within the purview of Order XVII, Rule 1, Code of Civil Procedure, as the review can be made strictly within the parameters stated in the aforesaid provision. It is well settled by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Malleeswari v. K.Suguna[1] that review court does not sit in appeal over its own order and a rehearing of the matter is impermissible.

8. In view of the aforesaid, the review application is dismissed.
