2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused threatened the de facto complainant with a knife and took away 15 kgs of silver from the de facto complainant who is a silver merchant. Hence, the present complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner's name does not find place in the First Information Report and that he has been falsely implicated in this case, only on the basis of the confession statement. He further submits that there is no previous case against the petitioner and that the petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody since 19.02.2026. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) while opposing grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also perused the records available.

6. From the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side), it is seen that there is no previous case registered against the petitioner. Further, considering the totality of the circumstances and upon the fact that the petitioner has been under incarceration since 19.02.2026 and that the petitioner's name does not find place in the First Information Report, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
