3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case and that he has been in judicial custody since 22.01.2026. It is further submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submitted that the petitioner has no bad antecedents and that, even according to the prosecution, the only allegation against the petitioner is that he pushed the deceased, resulting in a fall and head injury, which led to his death.

5. I have given anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly the nature of the allegation, the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, and the fact that the petitioner has no bad antecedents, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Rasipuram, and subject to the following conditions:

No petition for relaxation of this condition shall be entertained for a period of 30 days;

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] on breach of any of the aforementioned conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions had been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court itself, as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)13 SCC 283];
