3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the injured has sustained severe injury and apart from that, he would further submit that the petitioner has got one previous case.

4. At this juncture, Mr.R.Dinesh Kumar, learned counsel for the defacto complainant/Intervenor would produce the photographs of the defacto complainant, who had sustained serious injury on his leg and also a fracture in his leg.

5. In view of the fact that serious injuries sustained by the defacto complainant and further the fact that the petitioner has got one previous case, this Court is of the firm view that the petitioner has misused the liberty granted by this Court and has involved in similar types of offence. Hence, he does not deserve anticipatory bail.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
