2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner had stored explosive substance in an undesignated place which resulted in the death of an innocent person. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and, upon instructions, submitted that the petitioner has one previous case of similar nature, in which two persons died. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions.

6. From the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side), it is seen that the petitioner has not mended his conduct despite the liberty granted earlier by this Court in a previous application. Hence, this Court is of the view that the petitioner does not deserve anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
