ORDER

This Civil Revision Petition is filed challenging the order passed by the trial Court attaching salary of the petitioners/judgment debtor.

2. It is not in dispute that the first respondent herein obtained award under Chit Funds Act against the petitioners in ARC No.168/202 and the same was put into execution in E.P.No.16 of 2022. In the main Execution Proceedings, on 10.03.2023, the petitioners paid a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- and on the request made by the petitioners, the Executing Court directed the petitioners to pay a sum of Rs.3,00,000/- on or before 12.04.2023. However, the petitioners could not pay the said amount and made a request for further time by offering payment of Rs.1,00,000/-. Since the earlier conditional order passed by Executing Court was not complied with, the impugned order was passed for attachment of salary. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioners have come before this Court.

3. When the matter came up for hearing on 05.05.2023, this Court granted interim stay by directing the petitioners to deposit a sum of Rs.1,50,000/- to the credit of execution proceedings within a period of 15 days and further sum of Rs.1,50,000 within a period of 30 days. According to the learned counsel for the petitioners, the conditional order is complied with.

4. When the Civil Revision Petition came up for hearing on 30.09.2026, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners took time to settle the matter. However, today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the matter has not been settled and advanced the arguments on merits.

5. It is seen from the typed set of papers that total amount due from the petitioners as per the decree to the respondent/decree holder in the execution petition plus the cost of the execution petition is Rs.14,21,604/- (Rs. 13,53,404/- + Rs. 68,200/-)

6. It is seen from the typed set of papers and the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners paid a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- before the Executing Court and a sum of Rs.3,00,000/- pursuant to the conditional order passed by this Court in this revision. Till date the petitioners paid only a sum of Rs.4,00,000/- against the total EP amount of Rs.14,21,604/-. The petitioners by moving a revision got an interim order and enjoyed the benefit of stay for nearly three years. However, the petitioners failed to pay the substantial amount due to the respondent, as per decree.

7. In such circumstances, the petitioners have not established anything to interfere with the impugned order of attachment of the Executing Court. Accordingly, this Civil Revision Petition stands dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
