Tamil Nadu (Criminal side)

ORDER

The present petition has been preferred by the petitioner seeking a direction to the respondents police not to harass the petitioner in the guise of enquiry.

2.It is the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner was summoned by the third respondent for an enquiry in C.No.37/ACP/DCB/Salem City, dated 09.02.2026 and on receipt of the summons, the petitioner has also appeared for an enquiry on 19.03.2026 giving his explanation and has also furnished supporting documents. The third respondent, without considering the same, has been calling the petitioner for enquiry often and in the guise of enquiry, the petitioner is being harassed. Hence, he has filed the present petition. It is further submitted that one Selvakumar and Tamilselvan are partners of S.K.Enterprises and they are doing cloth vending business. There was money transaction between the petitioner and one Parthis, who is the son of Mr.Tamilselvan and the said Parthis had taken loan from the petitioner and there is some dispute with regard to the accounting. The petitioner had demanded repayment of the loan amount. But, suppressing these facts, it has been projected as though the petitioner had taken the loan and failed to repay the same. It is contended that for the civil dispute, the police are taking sides and harassing the petitioner.

3.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) has submitted that on a complaint forwarded from the Assistant Commissioner of Police, the third respondent has caused an enquiry and the petitioner had appeared for enquiry on 19.03.2026 and has also submitted certain documents. It is further submitted that the petitioner is required for an enquiry for further clarification. The learned learned Government Advocate has submitted that in future if the petitioner is required for an enquiry, summons would be served to the petitioner and thereafter, the petitioner will be called for enquiry and it is further submitted that the enquiry would be completed within a period of two months.

4.This court heard the submissions made by both sides and has perused the materials available on record. It is seen that there is a loan transaction and there arose dispute among the parties and therefore, the petitioner was called for enquiry. It is the submission of the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) that the enquiry would be completed within a period of two months. The said submission is recorded. Recording the same, this criminal original petition is disposed of. No costs.
