2. The allegation against the petitioners is that the petitioners committed theft of livestock namely, a cow. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the occurrence took place on 05.03.2026 and that the co-accused was already released on bail. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. I have given anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also perused the records available

6. In such a view of the position, at this length of time, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and also the fact that the petitioners have been implicated based on the confession of the co-accused. this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.
