"directing the respondents to pay interest amounts to the petitioners for the belatedly paid Service Gratuity, provident fund, Leave Salary along with the arrears payable on account of 15th wage settlement at the rate of 6 percent per annum for the said months of delayed payment in the light of the judgment passed by this Court on 23.10.2024 in W.P.No 30766 of 2024 by considering the representation of the petitioners on various dates."

2. It is the case of the petitioners that they were appointed as Conductors in the Respondent Corporation and retired from service on attaining the age of superannuation. After their retirement, the respondents settled their terminal benefits belatedly after several months, based on last salary paid to them. Therefore, the respondents are legally entitled to pay the interest to the same. While so, the 15th wage settlement was implemented and wage revision was given effect. Therefore, the respondents has to revise the pension, difference in leave salary and gratuity and settle the same.

3. The petitioners had made a representation to the respondents to pay them the interest for the belated period along with the arrears payable on account of implementation of 15th wage settlement with 6% interest. However, the same had not been considered to date by the respondents. Hence, the petitioners are before this Court.
