For Petitioner(s): M/s.S.N.Arun Kumar

For Respondent(s): M/S.R. RAJASEKARAN GA (CRL. SIDE) For R1

ORDER

The petitioners / A2 & A3 in C.C.No.6485 of 2025 facing trial for the offences under Sections 3(2)(a), 4(2)(c) and 5(1)(d) of Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956, had filed this quash petition.

2. The case against the petitioners is that on 21.11.2025 when the defacto complainant / second respondent was walking on Ram Nagar, Sasthri Road, Coimbatore, A1 introduced himself and invited him for prostitution with the petitioners / A2 and A3 by spending Rs.2,000/- each and a broker commission of Rs.2,000/-. Hence, a case has been registered. After investigation, charge sheet has been filed listing witnesses L.W.1 to L.W.8.

3. The contention of the petitioners is that even going by the case of the prosecution it is seen that on 21.11.2025 at about 11.30 p.m. when the defacto complainant was walking on Ram Nagar, Sasthri Road, A1 approached him and canvassed him for prostitution. Even going by the statement of the witnesses it is seen that the petitioners are only a victim. He further submitted that in this case there are totally 8 witnesses. Further, relying upon the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Budhadev Karmaskar vs. the State of West Bengal and others reported in 2022 Livelaw (SC) 525 wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court had held that sex workers are entitled to equal protection of law. Criminal law must apply equally in all cases on the basis of age and consent. The Panel constituted by the Hon'ble Supreme Court recommended in respect of the third term of reference in the following terms:~

“Whenever any brothel is raided, sex workers should not be arrested or penalised or harassed or victimised and it is only the running of the brothel, which is unlawful.”

This principle has been reiterated by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Prajwala Vs. Union of India and others reported in 2026 SCC OnLine SC 1053 wherein it has approved its earlier judgment. Thus the petitioners are only a victim.

4. The learned Counsel for Govt. of Tamil Nadu appearing for R1 submitted that the defacto complainant was approached by A1 and canvassed him for prostitution with the petitioners. Thereafter, he had gone to the brothel house and saw the petitioners and they came in closeness with him by showing their private parts. Thereafter, the defacto complainant had lodged a complaint before the police and the police had gone to the scene of occurrence and arrested A1 to A3 and seized the articles found in the scene of occurrence and filed the final report listing L.W.1 to L.W.8.

5. Considering the submissions made and upon perusal of materials, it is seen that in this case when the defacto complainant was walking in Ram Nagar, Sasthri Road, Coimbatore, A1 introduced himself to the defacto complainant and canvassed him for prostitution with the petitioners / A2 and A3 by paying Rs.2,000/- each and a broker commission of Rs.2,000/-. When the defacto complainant went to the place of prostitution, he found the petitioners there and they tried to seduce the defacto complainant by showing their private parts and immediately, the defacto complainant left the said place, went to the 1st respondent police station and lodged a complaint and thereafter a case was registered in Crime No.654 of 2025. It is to be seen that at the time when the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence and arrested the accused, there was no seduction or soliciting of any person. It is the submission of defacto complainant that there was some prostitution but without any materials. In this case, the specific charge against the petitioners is under Section 4(2)(c) & 3(2)(a) & 5(1)(d) of ITP Act. Section 4(2)(c) of ITP Act is against the person who is acting as a tout or pimp on behalf of a prostitute.

6. In this case, there is no material to show that there was any touting or pimping by the petitioners. Thus, considering the submissions of witnesses and materials produced, it is seen that there is no case made out against the petitioners and utmost the petitioners are a victim and nothing more. Further, the Hon'ble Apex Court in Budhadev Karmaskar's case (cited supra) has held that whenever any brothel is raided, sex workers should not be arrested or penalised or harassed or victimised. In view of the same, this Court is inclined to allow this petition.

7. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and as a sequel, the case in C.C.No.6485 of 2025 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Additional Mahila Court, Coimbatore, is quashed as against the petitioners and the petitioners are discharged from all charges. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition is closed. No costs.
