2. While pending trial in SC.No.326 of 2025 on the file of IV Additional District Judge, Thiruvallur @ Ponneri, the petitioner/A4 in the said case, did not appear before the trial court on a particular day. Therefore, the trial court issued non bailable warrant and as such, he was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 03.05.2025. Therefore, seeking bail, the above accused has filed this criminal original petition.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the non appearance of the petitioner before the trial court was neither wilful nor wanton as he had been arrested in some other case. Further, the petitioner is the bread winner of his family. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate(crl.side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was arrested only on non bailable warrant issued by the trial court. Therefore, if the petitioner is enlarged on bail, the same will result in prolongation of the trial period. Further, the petitioner is a habitual offender since he involved in 16 previous cases, wherein there were five murder cases. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.
