2. The learned counsel for the petitioner, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, who has been in incarceration since 28.03.2026 and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of bail, is that the petitioner allegedly produced forged and fabricated documents to obtain a legal heir certificate, by deliberately suppressing the existence of other legitimate legal heirs. He further submits that the investigation in this case is still pending.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on
