2. The learned counsel for the petitioner, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, who has been in incarceration since 25.03.2026 and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that a reading of the First Information Report would also show that the present case is a foisted one. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of bail, is that the petitioner waylaid the de facto complainant and robbed a sum of Rs.1,200/- from him at knife point. He further submits that the investigation in this case is still pending. He also submits that one previous case of similar nature is pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand
