of IPC, in Crime No.Not Known of 2026, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that he sold the de facto complainant's property by creating a fake Aadhaar and executing a General Power of Attorney, and thereby the de facto complainant's property was sold.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation and, hence, prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that unless the petitioner is taken into custody, the involvement of the other accused and the recovery of the money could not be effected.

5. The said contention of the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) cannot be found fault with. Hence, this Court is of the firm view that
