Petitions seeking bail in respect of Crime No.15 of 2026 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 127(2) and 103(1) of IPC, is on board for consideration.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioners, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners, who have been in incarceration since 07.02.2026 and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the co-accused were granted bail. He also submits that the investigation is over and charge sheet has been filed. He also submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of bail, is that the deceased who is the husband of A6 was having illicit affair, due to which, accused persons conspired together and attacked the defacto complainant's brother using coconut petiole and neem stick, due to which defacto complainant's brother sustained injuries and died on the spot. He further submits that the investigation in this case has been completed and charge sheet also filed.
