..Respondent(s)

Prayer: Habeas corpus petition filed under Article 226 of Constitution of India for issuance of a Writ, order or direction in the nature of a Habeas Corpus to call for the records of the 2nd respondent pertaining to the order made in 599/BBCDEFGISSSV/2025 dt. 26.08.2025l, in detaining the detainee under the Tamilnadu Act 14/1982 as a brand of Goonda and quash the same and direct the respondents to produce the detenu, Muhammed Moshsin S/o. Abdul Aleem who is detained at Central Prison, Puzhal, Chennai before this Honble Court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner(s): No appearance

For Respondent(s): Mr.C.R.Malarvannan

Counsel For Government Of Tamil Nadu
(Criminal Side)

Order

(Order of the Court was made by Dr.Anita Sumanth J.)

There is no representation for the petitioner. We have heard Mr.C.R.Malarvannan, learned counsel for Government of Tamil Nadu (Criminal Side), learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The Muhammed Moshsin (detenu) S/o Abdul Aleem, who was detained as a Goonda under Section 2(f) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982 (in short 'Act') has approached this Court challenging the order of detention dated 26.08.2025.

3. It is seen from the impugned order and the grounds of detention that the detenu was arrested on 23.07.2025 and he was detained on 26.08.2025. We do not find any satisfactory explanation for the delay in passing the order of detention either in the grounds of detention or in the counter affidavit filed by the 2nd respondent. Hence, we are of the view that the live and proximate link between grounds of detention and the purpose of detention stands snapped.

813), a similar issue arose, and the relevant discussion reads as follows:

“21. It is manifestly clear from a conspectus of the above decisions of this Court, that the underlying principle is that if there is unreasonable delay between the date of the order of detention & actual arrest of the detenu and in the same manner from the date of the proposal and passing of the order of detention, such delay unless satisfactorily explained throws a considerable doubt on the genuineness of the requisite subjective satisfaction of the detaining authority in passing the detention order and consequently render the detention order bad and invalid because the “live and proximate link” between the grounds of detention and the purpose of detention is snapped in arresting the detenu. A question whether the delay is unreasonable and stands unexplained depends on the facts and circumstances of each case.”

5. Drawing inspiration from the judgment in Sushanta Kumar Banik's case, a co-ordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Gomathi Vs. Principal Secretary to Government and Others (2023 SCC OnLine Mad 6332), had held that when there is an inordinate delay between the date of arrest/date of proposal and the order of detention, the live and proximate link between them would also stand snapped and thereby, had quashed the detention order on this ground.

6. In yet another case i.e., in Nagaraj Vs. State of Tamil Nadu, ((2018) 3 MWN (Cri) 428), this Court had held that the delay of 36 days in passing the detention order after the arrest of the detenu would snap the live and proximate link between the grounds and purpose of detention. In the present case, the delay is more than a month, 35 days to be exact, and unexplained and for this reason, vitiates the order, rendering it liable to be quashed.

7. In light of the aforesaid discussion, we are of the considered view that there is neither a proximate link between the arrest (23.07.2025) and order of detention (26.08.2025), and nor is there any credible material brought on record by the detaining authority to substantiate his subjective satisfaction.

8. Hence, this Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the Detention Order passed by the second respondent in No.599/BBCDEFGISSSV/2025 dated 26.08.2025 is set aside.

9. The detenu, viz., Muhammed Moshin, S/o.Abdul Aleem, male aged 36 years, who is now confined in Central Prison, Puzhal, Chennai, is directed to be set at liberty forthwith unless his presence is required in connection with any other case.
