2. The learned counsel for the petitioner, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, who has been in incarceration since 06.04.2026 and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner has been implicated in this case solely based on the confession statement recorded from the other accused. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of bail, is that accused 1 to 3 were found to be in illegal possession of 1,600 tapentadol tablets. On enquiry, they confessed that they had procured the same from the petitioner/A4, who runs a medical shop in the State of Maharashtra. He further submits that the investigation in this case is still pending.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on
