2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had committed matrimonial cruelty against his wife, the de facto complainant. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and due to a matrimonial dispute, a false complaint has been given against the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the allegation and further taking note of the fact that the custody of the petitioner is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
