2. The learned counsel for the petitioner, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, who has been in incarceration since 27.02.2026 and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that though the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence, he was arrested in this case, since he has several previous cases. He further submits that even as per the prosecution, the stolen jewels were recovered. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of bail, is that the accused trespassed into the house of the de facto complainant, by breaking open the door and committed theft of 6 ½ sovereigns of gold jewels. He further submits that the stolen jewels were recovered and the case is pending trial on the file of the Judicial Magistrate Court, Avinashi. He also submits that four previous cases of similar nature are pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police and perused the
