The petitioner/accused facing trial in C.C.No.1854 of 2025 before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Vellore for offence under Sections 4(1)(A) and 4(1)(C) of Tamil Nadu Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2024, filed this Quash Petition.

2.The case of the prosecution is that, on 26.11.2025, the petitioner was found in possession of TN IMFL 180 ml Old Chef Rum-19 bottles and Mens Club Brandy-1 bottle (totalling 20 bottles measuring 3.6 litres) in the backyard of his house. When the petitioner enquired, he informed that the said liquor bottles intended to be sold at a higher price. On the same day, in the presence of police witnesses, the said 20 liquor bottles seized and the petitioner arrested. Hence, a case in Crime No.270 of 2026 registered against the petitioner for the offences under Sections 4(1)(A) and 4(1)(C) of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2024. On completion of the investigation, charge sheet filed before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Vellore, and the same taken on file as C.C.No.1854 of 2025.

3.Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the entire search and seizure stage-managed by the respondent Police. In this case, no independent witness examined and the witnesses examined are all Police personnels, hence, the search and seizure are doubtful. He further submitted that, as per the seizure mahazar, the petitioner was in possession of 20 liquor bottles for his personal consumption. In the charge sheet, there is nothing to show that the petitioner was selling or sold liquor bottles to any person at a higher price and no witness examined in this regard. The learned counsel further submitted that, as per G.O.Ms.No.14, H.P. & EVI Department, dated 09.06.2017, a person can lawfully possess a maximum of 4.5 litres of Indian Made Foreign Spirits for personal use. In the present case, the petitioner was found in possession of only 3.6 litres of liquor. According to the petitioner, he falls within the exempted category, hence, no offence made out against him. Further the said liquor bottles purchased in the State of Tamil Nadu. Learned counsel for the petitioner relied upon the Tamil Nadu Liquor (Possession for Personal Consumption) Rules, 1996 (G.O.Ms.No.75, P. & E., dated 19.04.1996). Hence, he prays for quashing.

CRL.O.P.No.11092 of 2026

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that, when the respondent Police were on patrol duty on 26.11.2025, the petitioner was found selling liquor bottles illegally to the public. He further submitted that the petitioner is a habitual offender and was selling liquor at higher prices whenever there was a restriction and after the closure of TASMAC shops. For that purpose, he purchased and possessed 20 bottles of liquor totalling 3.6 litres. This would clearly show that the purpose of possessing 20 bottles was not for personal consumption but only for sale. The points raised by the petitioner are to be decided only during trial. Hence, the present petition is liable to be dismissed.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the Tamil Nadu Liquor (Possession for Personal Consumption) Rules, 1996, (G.O.Ms.No.75, P & E, dated 19.04.1996, relied upon by the learned counsel for the petitioner, it is revealed that an individual can carry 4.5 litres of Indian made Foreign spirits for his personal use. Here, in the present case, the petitioner was in possession of TN IMFL 180 ML Old Chef Rum-19 and Mens Club Brandy 180
